Ryan Norlin:

In 1989 the first Ryan Norlin GIANT Pumpkin Weigh-Off was held in Anamosa, Iowa on Oct 7th in a parking lot east of town. The competition was started by Tom Norlin, uncle of Ryan, who wished to dedicate the weigh-off to his 7-year-old nephew who had lost his life in a boating accident that June. Tom had been growing big pumpkins for 30 years, and Ryan had become increasingly involved.

Mother Harvest:

“Farming is a very important part of our survival. It is up to us to take care of our land, our water, and our food. Pg. 225.
